Bank Gift to Goodwill Makes Holiday Memorable

BOSTON - The Board of Directors of Danversbank (<https://www.danversbank.com>) has announced a recent donation of $10,000 to Morgan Memorial Goodwill Industries of Boston. Danversbank is the principal subsidiary of Danvers Bancorp, Inc. (NASDAQ: DNBK).

The bank's donation was made in lieu of purchasing corporate holiday gifts, and Goodwill was the chosen recipient because of its long history of service and its renown for improving the lives of those it serves. Officials at Goodwill were delighted to learn of the unsolicited gift. This generous gift from Danversbank will go toward our mission of providing job training for individuals with disabilities and other barriers to self-sufficiency, said Joanne K. Hilferty, president and CEO of Goodwill. We are grateful for Danversbank's strong commitment to Goodwill and the community at large. Their support is especially important today when times are tough and the need is great for so many.

About Morgan Memorial Goodwill Industries

For more than a century, Goodwill has provided job training programs and partnered with the business community to provide meaningful work opportunities for individuals with disabilities and other barriers to self-sufficiency. The eight Goodwill Stores and one outlet store in eastern and central Massachusetts provide on-the-job training opportunities for Goodwill participants and support Goodwill's programs. In addition, Goodwill operates Boston Career Link, a one-stop career center, which offers universal access to a broad range of services for job seekers, individuals who are looking to advance or change careers, and employers seeking good job candidates. Goodwill also offers programs that foster academic achievement and career aspirations among urban youth. Goodwill serves more than 9,500 people annually.
